

DoubtLess Faith

A ministry partner for the doubters, skeptics, and disconnected in your congregation

---

Your Congregation Has Doubters Too

Every church has them — the person who's been in the pews for years but has never felt close to God. The one wrestling with hard questions they're afraid to ask out loud. The one whose faith took a hit from suffering, a wayward family member, or a hard apologetics question no one could answer. DoubtLess Faith exists to help — alongside your pastoral care, not instead of it.

Who I Am

I'm Kristen Davis, founder of DoubtLess Faith. I hold a PhD in Philosophy of Religion, an MA in Christian Apologetics, and a BS in Religion with a focus in Biblical Studies. I've spent over a decade in apologetics ministry helping people move from intellectual doubt and emotional disconnection into a real, trusting relationship with God.

Where I Stand

On apologetics: a tool for two purposes — removing stumbling blocks for those coming to Christ, and equipping believers to know what they believe and why. Never a weapon, and never a replacement for the work of the Holy Spirit. Christianity can be shown reasonable beyond a reasonable doubt; unbelief is ultimately a heart issue, not only a head issue.

On doctrine: DoubtLess Faith holds to a historic, orthodox evangelical statement of faith — inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the deity and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by grace through faith, and the Great Commission.

I'm not interested in pulling people out of church community or positioning myself as an alternative to pastoral authority. My work is meant to strengthen someone's ability to stay and grow in a church, not replace their need for one.

Ways We Might Work Together

- Individual referrals — for a congregant wrestling with doubt who needs more one-on-one time than pastoral care allows
  - Guest teaching or a workshop — for a small group, youth ministry, or a congregation-wide apologetics event
  - Ongoing partnership — a ministry you point people to consistently as part of your discipleship pipeline

Let's Talk

If any of this could serve your congregation, I'd love to talk it through.
